

Leading Through Relationships

A five-day advanced development workshop

MAY 5-10, 2019

BABSON EXECUTIVE CONFERENCE CENTER, WELLESLEY, MA

Successful leaders create cultures of accountability, commitment, and learning. They build robust relationships that enable people to work across boundaries, integrate diverse perspectives and foster collaboration. They make the important conversations happen. This unique, intensive workshop is for those who want to thrive and to help others thrive in such a world.

The Action Design workshop is among the most powerful development experiences I've had in my career. I now have tools and approaches to help when the conversation appears stuck.

Small groups and learning trios led by faculty provide a rare opportunity for individualized coaching and practice.

I am continuing to work with your ideas about team learning and organizational change. The workshop I attended turned out to be a real breakthrough. I reframed my own role to “adding value by stimulating a constructive dialogue,” and now I am getting traction.

Some things can only be evaluated over time, and the concepts and skills related to organizational and personal learning you shared with me almost 20 years ago have been among the most important in my professional and personal life. I keep coming back to them with great results.

I really enjoyed the Action Design workshops when I took them, but I also noticed that they had a “time release” quality in my life. It’s been a gradual process, but I have actually caught myself seeing things very differently.
